Following the cancellation of the Geneva Motor Show, Volkswagen will be presenting its innovations as part of an online stream

- World premieres of the Touareg R¹ and sporty, compact Golf icons

Wolfsburg (Germany) - Volkswagen welcomes the decision of the Geneva State Council to cancel this year's Geneva Motor Show. This is a decision in the interests of the health and safety of all participants and employees. As an alternative to the originally scheduled press conference on Tuesday, March 3rd, at 9.10 am, the Volkswagen brand will showcase its automotive innovations in an online stream.

Ralf Brandstätter, Chief Operating Officer of the Volkswagen Brand, and Dr. Frank Welsch, Member of the Board of Management of the Volkswagen Passenger Cars Brand with responsibility for Technical Development, will be presenting the new Touareg R with plug-in hybrid technology and the eighth generation of the Golf GTI² for the very first time. The event will be streamed on <https://www.volkswagen-newsroom.com/en/live-stream-5455>. Further transmission details to follow shortly.

¹Touareg – The vehicle is a production-near concept car.

²Golf GTI – The vehicle is a production-near concept car.
