The new Golf R-Line and Golf Variant R-Line

- Sporty equipment packages available for the new Golf and Golf Variant

Wolfsburg, 4 January 2017 – Buyers of the new Golf who want to upgrade to sportier features can now order the new R-Line packages.

Along with an exterior package, which consists of distinctive front and rear body modifications, there is also an extensive R-Line package. It contains features of the exterior package, alloy wheels and, in addition, sophisticated interior accents. An overview of the packages:

R-Line exterior package

- R-Line front bumper with air intake screens in high-gloss black and unique honeycomb structure, C signature in high-gloss black
- Rear bumper with R-Line specific diffuser and trapezoidal chrome trims
- Sill extensions in high-gloss black
- Package-specific rear spoiler with aero flaps
- R-Line badges on radiator grille and side panels

R-Line package

- Features of the R-Line exterior package
- R-Line sport seats in “Carbon Flag/San Remo” design, or optionally upholstered in “Vienna” leather (perforated) in Black-Crystal Grey
- Multifunction sport steering wheel, leather-wrapped with contrasting stitching, and R-Line badge
- Decorative “Dark Diamond Flag” inlays
- Gear shift boot and floor mats feature contrasting stitching
- Stainless steel door sill panels, pedal caps and foot rest
- Black rooflining
- R-Line logo on display start screen
- Wheels (selection): 17 or 18-inch “Sebring” alloy wheels
17-inch “Singapore” alloy wheels, 18-inch “Marseille” alloy wheels

Equipment packages are available now for both models. Customers who require only the sporty look for the bodywork will want to select the exterior package from a price of €1,105 (Highline) or €1,295 (Comfortline). The equipment package for interior and exterior costs €1,800 (Highline) or €2,295 (Comfortline).
